JUDGES

Phillipa Frederiksen EFIAP FAPS

Phillipa has been interested in Photography since retiring, entering numerous National and International competitions since then. She has been involved with the committees of her local Camera Club, the Photographic Society of Queensland and the Australian Photographic Society. Phillipa now spends considerable time judging and making photographic presentations at various clubs.

Bert Hoveling PhD EFIAP FAPS HonFAPS SSAPS SSVAPS

Bert is a member of the Camberwell Camera Club in Melbourne, Australia. He has judged numerous National and International Salons in Australia and overseas. Bert is a Past President of the Victorian Association of Photographic Societies, VIGEX International Salon of Photography, and the Australian Photographic Society. He is one of only two Australians to be inducted into the "World Photography Academy". He is also the current FIAP Liaison Officer for the Australian Photographic Society.

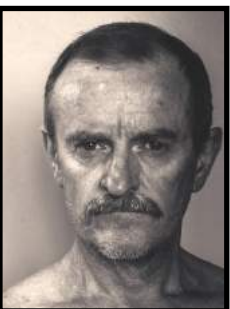

Marg Huxtable FAPS

Marg has had a long involvement with Melbourne Camera Club and has had success in National and International Salons. She has been judging at National and International Salons for several years and finds this both inspirational and educational. Travel, within Australia and overseas, has given her plenty of opportunities to enjoy photojournalism and Social Documentary photography which are of particular interest to her. More recently her subjects have included Nature.

Graig Parker EFIAP EPSA MAPS

Craig was a member of Wollongong Camera Club from 2008 to 2014 where as well as competing with significant success he served in roles of Secretary and President and ran a number of workshops for members. He began entering National and International salons in 2009 and has since gained numerous awards in Nature, Travel, Photojournalism, Colour and Monochrome. Craig enjoys travelling specifically for wildlife photography.

Rob Smith AAPS

Rob is a retired corporate photographer/videographer with a degree in zoology. While at school, he attained a diploma in art. Rob has been an intent photographer since the age of 17. In retirement he is enjoying the freedom to pursue his own artistic agenda; taking opportunities to write about, and teach and judge photography; and developing multimedia presentations on photography as a means of artistic expression. He also has an interest in scrutinising the rule-compliance of images entered in the Nature section of exhibitions.

Jim Weatherill AAPS

Jim's interest in photography is broad as illustrated by his membership of the Australian Photographic Society, Melbourne Camera Club, Hawthorn Photographers Group, Victorian Nature Photographers Group and Australian Association of Street Photographers. Jim has been active in competitions and judging since 1969. His service to photography has been recognised by the APS and the Victorian Association of Photographic Societies.
