JUDGES

Ron Willems is a seasoned creative digital photographic artist. He became one of New Zealand's most successful photographers of all time in the medium of colour transparency last century, winning the National Salon of Photography, Robinson Cup & PSNZ Gold Medal six times with a range of creative images. Ron has judged at all levels of competitive photography over 45 years.

In recent digital years he has won many major exhibition awards, including twice being the most successful participant in the Australian Digital Photography Awards. In 2015 he was made an Honorary Life member of the Photographic Society of New Zealand for his contribution to photography in New Zealand and Australia, being a photographic Fellow of both countries.

Joanne Stolte has earned the photography distinctions MPSA and EFIAP. She has been General Chair of the S4C International Exhibition since 2001 and is the Judge Selection and Training Director for S4C. She often judges internationally; for example, the Welsh, the Great British Small Print Circuit, Fotoferia, PSA China (Beijing & Takesi), Polish, the Holland Circuit, GiaDinh (Vietnam), and AC-FOTO German Mega Circuit. Joanne is the PSA-GPU Liaison Officer. Joanne served on the PSA Board of Directors as Membership Vice President from 2005 to 2010 and as Information Systems Vice President from 2010 to 2011. Joanne is Chair of the Southern California Roundup Chapter of PSA, the PSA Journal PID News Editor, and Directs the PSA PID Photo Essay Contest. She serves on the PSA Nominating, International Understanding Through Photography (IUTP) Award, Projected Image Collections, and Portfolio Committees. She is a trained PSA Portfolio Assessor. For her exceptional service to PSA she received the President's Award in 2009 and was elected a Fellow (FPSA) in 2012.

Joseph Tam started to enter into photographic exhibitions worldwide in 2010 and is now an accomplished international exhibitor. To date, he has collected over 11,000 international acceptances and won more than 1,500 awards from exhibitions over 70 countries.

Joe has consistently ranked top 3 positions in the PSA World Top-10 Exhibitors for three consecutive years between 2012 and 2014. He has received 32 FIAP Blue Badges for Best Exhibitors from numerous international exhibitions.

Joe is the PSA Star Ratings Director of Photo Travel Division and Country Representative of ICS in Australia.

Dianne English has a keen interest in all forms of photography. She has achieved International and National recognition with Gold, Silver and Bronze medals for her images in many categories.

At an International level her highest achievement has been Overall Winner in the Royal Horticultural Society 2017 Award for floral photography. Along with this award she was chosen as winner of the International Gardens in Focus in 2014.

She has judged numerous International and National competitions and is a regular presenter at NSW Camera Clubs.

Neville Foster has been involved in the camera club movement since 1967. In 1976 he joined the Australian Photographic Society where he joined Nature Division. In 1988 he was elected to the Council of Nature Division and became Chairman of the Nature Division and Executive Director of the Society in 1992, a position held for four years. He held the position of Senior Vice President of Australian Photographic Society from 1996-98; and was President of the Australian Photographic Society from 1998-2000.

He has submitted entries in National and International competitions to compete with his fellow photographers and to receive catalogues where he has been able to see the different trends in photography over the years. He has judged many National and International exhibitions.

Roy Killen lives in Newcastle and is a keen traveller and nature photographer. He has been participating in National and International exhibitions since 2008 and has achieved over 4600 international acceptances and over 300 awards in international exhibitions. He has received the APS's highest award for exhibition success, the APS Exhibitor's Medal, and the Grand Masters distinction from the Photographic Society of America. In addition to photographic honours from APS, FIAP and PSA, Roy was awarded the Nature Medallion by the Australian Photographic Society in 2015. He frequently judges at club, national and international level and is a regular workshop presenter.

Rob Smith is a retired corporate photographer/videographer who has been judging at club, national, and international levels since 2009. Rob's particular photographic interests include expressive landscape and nature photography, and the creation of multimedia productions. He is also an accomplished speaker who prefers to speak on topics related to the practice of photography as an art form. Rob's motto is "If it moves you, shoot it!"
