JUDGES

Alec Trusler's interest in photography goes back into the ninety's where he started out as a nature photographer. In 2013 Alec gained his ARPS in nature with the Royal Photographic Society and was a member of various camera clubs in the UK. In 2014 Alec moved from the UK for a new life in NSW, Australia, where he joined the Maitland camera club and was soon to become Membership Secretary, and got a lot of happiness helping the new members getting involved in the club. He enjoys entering international competitions and as been rewarded by receiving his EFIAP and QPSA .

Graeme Watson lives in Canberra and has been a member of the Australian Photographic Society since 1963. He has been on the Management Committee of APS as Junior Vice President and Senior Vice President and has also been chairman of the APS Nature Division. He is also a current member of the Exhibition Services Sub Committee of APS. Graeme has judged at club level as well as for APS national exhibitions and Australian and International Salons and has competed in international salons in over 60 countries gaining over 10,000 international acceptances as well as over 800 awards. His photographic interests include Nature, Sports, Travel and Street Photography. Graeme currently holds the honours and distinctions of APSEM (Exhibitor's Medal) from the Australian Photographic Society, has been awarded the distinction of Master (level 2) of the Photographic Society of America and the EFIAP/d1 (diamond level) from the International Federation of Photographic Art in Europe.

Helen Walker lives in Lake Macquarie NSW Australia. She is an accomplished artist and became interested in photography as a means to improve her composition skills. Helen is now a passionate nature photographer with strong interests in other photographic disciplines, such as monochrome, creative and travel. She has travelled widely and believes the key to great photography is the ability to capture that special moment in that special light. She likes pushing the boundaries with her own photography and when judging, looks for the personal vision that each photographer brings to their work.

Roy Killen is an accomplished wildlife photographer who competes regularly in international exhibitions. In 2015 he was awarded the Nature Medallion by The Australian Photographic Society in recognition of his contribution to nature photography. He has many years experience as a judge at club, national and international level. He is the Membership Vice President of the Photographic Society of America.

Leanne Alessi has been passionate about photography for more than 30 years and is a multi-award winning national and international photographer and judge. In recognition of her photographic achievements she has gained her EFIAP/Silver, PPSA, GMAPS and EMFCC distinctions in four short years.

Leanne was a member of Campbelltown Camera Club in the early/mid 1990's, a former member of St George Photographic Society, a moderator for a former photographic website, Passion for Pixels; is a member of Terra Australis Photography Group; the Australian Photographic Society (APS) and the Photographic Society of America (PSA). She has recently taken on the Honorary Secretary's role of the newly formed Ingleburn RSL Photography Club.

She is proudly married to well-credentialed and accomplished photographer, presenter and judge, John Alessi – some of you may know. Incidentally, she is also directly related to the renowned Australian modernist photographer, the late Max Dupain.

Gordon Dean started learning about Photography in 1981 when he joined the Rockhampton Camera club, before in 1986 moving to Brisbane with his wife and two young children, he was accepted to study Photography part time obtaining a Associate Diploma in Art (Photography) in 1990 after a 4 year course. Having a spell from photography for over 10 years he returned to competition in 2006, and started competing in internationals in 2008

His achievements have been recognised by the Australian Photographic society by being awarded their highest award, the APS Exhibitors Medal, and the EFIAP/g from FIAP.

Although he still loves to compete his passion is to help beginners become better photographers in this ever-changing world of Art.

John Alessi

In 1997, he joined the St George Leagues Club Photographic Society and was elected to the committee within three months, eventually serving fourteen consecutive terms in various committee positions. John is a founding member of Ingleburn Photography Club and has recently retired as president after five years. Besides judging at club level for over 22 years, John is also an award-winning national exhibitor and an accredited national and international salon judge and was most recently working as a professional sports and portrait photographer. John's work has been published in the media many times, including tourist publications, books, magazine and music CD covers. Passionate in many photographic genres, his love of sports led to the position of photo supervisor at both the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games and Sydney Paralympic Games. Since 2004, John has been heavily involved in teaching audio visual technology to photographers as a means of showcasing their talents. John met Leanne in 2006, they married in 2008 and spend most of their spare time together photographing, judging, lecturing and nurturing beginner photographers.
