Author's comment: This image was taken on a chilly, early morning game drive at Mala Mala Game Reserve in South Africa. Our guide told us that there was a young leopard in the area. We searched around for some time and tracked the young leopard to this sunny spot on a small hilltop where it was enjoying the morning sun. The open location provided excellent photographic opportunities enabling us to capture the leopard in an unusually relaxed state.

Since her first acceptance in March 2016 she has received more than 5000 acceptances with over 500 awards.
